

NAI Interpretive Naturalist Section
Bob Jennings Scholarship Program

Scholarship for Virtual Conference
August 7-8, 2024

Application Deadline: May 15, 2024

All members of the NAI Interpretive Naturalist (IN) Section are invited to apply for one of four scholarships to cover registration to the Interpretive Naturalist Virtual Conference taking place via the Whova app August 7-8, 2024. The recipients will be chosen based on financial need, desire to attend, NAI activity, and appearance and completeness of application. These scholarships are open to all members, including students, seasonals, volunteers, regular, and life members. Though the regular registration rate might be different, that rate will be applied through the scholarship.

Applicants must supply all the information below for consideration, be current members of NAI and the IN Section, and able to download (and use) the Whova mobile or web app. Recipients must register for the workshop on their own (once their status has been confirmed), and the registration fee will be deducted by the national office. The recipients will be recognized at the section meeting (mandatory attendance) during the conference and write an article for the section newsletter about his/her conference experience.

In your application (PDF preferred) include the following information (presentation counts toward total score):

- Name, position, organization, and complete contact information
- Explain your involvement in the field of interpretation
- Explain how attending this workshop will benefit you
- Explain financial need
- A letter of recommendation is allowed, but not mandatory
